

Activity 4

Determining Cause and Effect

Title of Document
Author of Document
Date of Document
Type of Document (Speech, narrative, letter, article, or journal entry)

1. Who was the intended audience for this document?

2. Place this document into a time frame. For example, what else was occurring in the world at this time? How does this document relate to the events and issues of the day?

3. What important factual information does this document contain? List facts below.

- a.
- b.
- c.

4. Does the author(s) of this document express any opinions? If so, list the opinions expressed below.

CRITICAL THINKING ACTIVITY

How was this document presented to its intended audience? Did its presentation make a difference on how it impacted the audience? Brainstorm and write down your ideas analyzing the motivations of the authors of the document. Include your conclusions on how the presentation of this document impacted various audiences. Did this document do what it was designed to do?